Frequently Asked Questions

Common questions about contacting our firm and scheduling consultations.

Is the initial consultation really free?

Yes, we offer a completely free initial consultation for all new clients. This allows us to understand your legal needs and for you to get to know our firm without any financial commitment.

How quickly can I schedule an appointment?

We typically can schedule consultations within 24-48 hours. For urgent matters, we offer same-day appointments when possible. Emergency consultations are available 24/7.

Do you offer virtual consultations?

Yes, we offer secure video consultations for clients who prefer to meet remotely or cannot visit our office in person. These are just as effective as in-person meetings for most legal matters.

What should I bring to my consultation?

Bring any relevant documents related to your legal matter, a list of questions you'd like to ask, and a timeline of important events. Don't worry if you don't have everything - we can work with whatever information you have.

How long does a consultation typically last?

Initial consultations typically last 30-60 minutes, depending on the complexity of your legal matter. We'll take the time needed to fully understand your situation and provide meaningful advice.

What if I have an emergency legal situation?

Call our 24/7 emergency line at (555) 123-4568. We have attorneys available around the clock for urgent legal matters that cannot wait for regular business hours.
